Overview

Document types are used in the ERP, to tell apart documents with different purposes, for example Sale orders and Calibration orders (Both are orders, but of different types). Document types are always connected to the document, whose sub-type they are.

Users with proper permissions can add new and edit existing document types. Document types can also be exported into an excel file.

Revision #5
Created 2024-04-08 10:45:38 UTC by Admin
Updated 2025-07-29 12:51:43 UTC by Admin